Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill?

Fully Supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill?

I have been approached by a woman who did not have money to buy sanitary products, but whom I could smell was menstruating. No woman in Scotland should go through that. Children don't always have access to money, but may suddenly need products, particularly when their cycle is irregular. I would like products to be always available to them.

Page 8: Universal provision of sanitary products

Q2. Do you think a universal, card-based system (modelled on the c-card system for free condoms) would be an effective means of providing sanitary products for free to those who need them?

Unsure

Q3. Which of the following best expresses your view in relation to a card-based system?

Other (please specify)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I'm concerned that by linking the card to qualifying for benefits or low income that people sanctioned, those with mental health issues, those living on the streets, etc will get excluded. This proposal speaks of fulfilling a need. I think that should be undertaken as widely as possible.

Q4. Do you have a view on which locations would be most suitable for dispensing free sanitary products (e.g. GP surgeries, pharmacies, community centres, health clinics)?

Supermarkets.

Page 11: Schools, colleges and universities

Q5. Do you agree that there should be specific obligations on schools, colleges and universities to make sanitary products available for free (via dispensers in toilets)?

Yes

Page 12: Personal experience (questions 6 and 7 are for individual respondents only)

Q6. Have you ever struggled to access or afford sanitary products during menstruation? (e.g. financial barriers, unexpected circumstances, health issues)

Q6. Have you ever struggled to access or afford sanitary products during menstruation? (e.g. financial barriers, unexpected circumstances, health issues)

Yes, occasionally

Q7. If sanitary products were available for free, which of the following would apply to you?

I would expect to claim free products occasionally

Please explain the reasons for your response

I'd take them in an emergency

Page 14: Financial implications

Q8. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

	Significant increase in cost	Some increase in cost	Broadly cost-neutral	Some reduction in cost	Significant reduction in cost	Unsure
(a) Government and the public sector (e.g. local authorities, the NHS)		X
(b) Colleges and universities			X
(c) Businesses (including suppliers/retailers of sanitary products)		X
(d) Individuals (including consumers of sanitary products)				X

Q9. Are there ways in which the Bill could achieve its aim more cost-effectively (e.g. by reducing costs or increasing savings)?

No Response

What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Slightly positive

Please explain the reasons for your response

We are talking about small numbers of women who will be assisted here so their dignity will be respected.

Q11. In what ways could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

I don't see that there would be any negative impact

Page 18: Sustainability

Q12. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response:

Menstrual cups would be the most environmentally friendly option

Q13. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal?

I think a human face should be put on the campaign more. Some public comments appear to make out there is no need, but I've seen the face of women who don't have the money for these products. They exist.
