Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill?

Fully Supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill?

I no longer use these products but i remember clearly the difficulty at certains times in my life when money was in short supply in buying what was an essential product not only for my dignity but for practical and hygienic reasons

Page 8: Universal provision of sanitary products

Q2. Do you think a universal, card-based system (modelled on the c-card system for free condoms) would be an effective means of providing sanitary products for free to those who need them?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response

dont know enough about it

Q3. Which of the following best expresses your view in relation to a card-based system?

Other (please specify)

again dont know enough about it

Q4. Do you have a view on which locations would be most suitable for dispensing free sanitary products (e.g. GP surgeries, pharmacies, community centres, health clinics)?

not community centres that would be inappropriate

Page 11: Schools, colleges and universities

Q5. Do you agree that there should be specific obligations on schools, colleges and universities to make sanitary products available for free (via dispensers in toilets)?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response

i think that is obvious and very appropriate . showing some sensitivity about the feelings of young girls

Page 12: Personal experience (questions 6 and 7 are for individual respondents only)

Q6. Have you ever struggled to access or afford sanitary products during menstruation? (e.g.financial barriers, unexpected circumstances, health issues)

Yes, occasionally

Please explain or give an example of your experience if you feel able to do so.
when my family was young and we had a very limited income

Q7. If sanitary products were available for free, which of the following would apply to you?

Not applicable: I do not need or use sanitary products

Page 14: Financial implications

Q8. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

	Significant increase in cost	Some increase in cost	Broadly cost-neutral	Some reduction in cost	Significant reduction in cost	Unsure
(a) Government and the public sector (e.g. local authorities, the NHS)		X
(b) Colleges and universities		X
(c) Businesses (including suppliers/retailers of sanitary products)		X
(d) Individuals (including consumers of sanitary products)		X

Please explain the reasons for your response

there is bound to a cost which the taxpayer will pay either through direct taxation or through retail

Q9. Are there ways in which the Bill could achieve its aim more cost-effectively (e.g. by reducing costs or increasing savings)?

would be difficult but i am sure this bill was thought out i cant think how other than small taxation

Page 16: Equalities

Q10. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your response

at last people are recognising the inequality of women having to pay for many years for a physical phenomenon that effects half the population.

Q11. In what ways could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

emphasise the inequality that women have suffered from time began itself this is not self inflicted and is necessary for the continuance of the human race

Q12. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response:

there will be some economic impact but it has to be faced

Page 19: General

Q13. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal?

not at the moment
